SEVERAL NEW PLAYERS ARE PUT IN GAME

Players on Vacation Proves Great Handicap to Charley Friene's All Standards

DIMOCK HURLS GREAT BALL
New Players in Lineup Fail To Do Their Stuff for The Good Of Their Club

STANDARD OIL LEAGUE
All Standards: 4 4 666
Mechanics: 5 6 451
Refinery: 6 6 451
Barrel House: 4 6 409

The All Standards were in exceedingly bad form last night, and so they dropped their game to the refinery after seven listless innings by a score of 5 to 1.

Charley Friene's outfit was badly handicapped by vacancies in five positions. Four of his men are either on the sick list or on their vacations. Gillispie was shot from the first to the box, and although he allowed only seven hits, his team was badly beaten.

Cullers, right-fielder de luxe, and leader of the league for hits, is now vacationing, and Si Cunningham, a pitcher by trade, was put in that position. Friene himself undertook to fill the ticket as short stop, and found that it was not such a cinch.

NOT SO GOOD
Bradley was put at first, and Kellehu at second. Both of them are new players, not having been seen in action this year. Neither of them did so good, either for fielding or at bat. Bradley was credited with a pair of muffs and did nothing at all his stick. Kellehu didn't make any errors in the field, but he failed miserably at his plate. Friene also got two errors.

Armentrout, who has caught a fine game for the All Standards this year, showed that he couldn't figure Gillispie's slants. He therefore became excited and thought the bases were full when they were far from such.

A light tap went to Gillispie, who returned it to Armentrout. This had, elated over a double play (prospective) whirled and threw to first, not touching the runner racing for his plate. He did get the man at first.

GILLISPIE BATS 1000
Gillispie, although working pretty hard in the box, did some good work at bat also out of three trips to the rubber, he got that many hits, one of them being a double. Zimmerman, the first man up in the game, also cracked out a double. This last was legitimate without a doubt, but Gillispie's should have been an out—but Cunningham misjudged his drive and let the ball slip through his fingers.

Hal Dimock worked wonders in the box yesterday. He held the opposition to four measly, widely scattered hits, none of them doing any harm, and he had nothing to worry about from the first to the final bell. His supporting cast started out early in the conflict with every intention to win, and made four runs before the All Standards had time to figure out what it was all about.

This victory puts the Barrel House in the cellar by a margin of one game. The Barrel House and the Mechanics play today, and if the former wins, it will be a dirty shirt for the Mechanics. They will be then hopelessly submerged in the muck of the basement.

The Merchants have come to Richmond and heaped a lovely defeat on the heads of the Richmond Fire department, who have thrice the same to the Keys, so Tex is anticipating a hard fought battle.

Nevertheless he expects to cop all honors of the day, as he has made some valuable additions to his lineup in a pair of expert outfielders, who are also reported to be just as expert in handling a bat. He refused to divulge just who these personalities are.

SHADE SHOWS LIGHTNING IN HIS WORKOUTS

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 5.—Jimmy Slattery, the busted Buffalo phenom, was not disgraced when he bowed before the lustrous blows of Dave Shade in New York last month. For Dave, in one workout here, gave the railbirds sufficient food for thought that they raved over him after his workout.

Shade, who boxes Frankie Schoell in the 10-round star bout of the North End Athletic club's show at Recreation park here Saturday evening, has improved 50 percent over the boy who fought Jimmy Duffy at the Oakland ball park last year.

Then Dave fought in a low crouch and, while he was practically unhittable, he could not punch himself. Before he could untangle himself and punch his opponent generally was out of harm's way.

Now Dave stands up straight and jabs with a stiff left hand, and carries his right glove in a position where it can always reach an opponent. Dave shoots the right hand straight and accurate, and his ability to hit his opponent on the chin is uncanny.

In his first workout Dave put on the gloves with Lou Paluso, Salt Lake City lightweight, who is scheduled to box Frankie Farren in the 10 round semi-windup to the Shade-Schoell contest.

Paluso, a lithe, willing boxer, had Shade boxing fast, moving in and out. Shade didn't attempt to hit him, but merely forced the little fellow to punch to keep busy.

Carl Kamb, speedball king of the bushes, who won five straight games in the Saturday division, will be on the mound for the Pullman nine Saturday. McElroy will be behind the log. A Spalding cup and gold watch fobs will be awarded to the winning team.

NEBRASKA HERMIT LEAVES CAVE HOME AFTER THIRTY YEARS, PLAY FIRST GOLF

Henry F. Morris, 69 years old, after secluding himself in northern Nebraska for 39 years, made a pilgrimage back to civilization and visited Omaha. He found that the world had made great progress. After viewing the wonders of the "outside world," as he terms the world in which he does not live, he expressed the view that it is rapidly rushing to destruction. Morris lives on nuts, roots and various vegetation. In the summer he gathers these things and hoards them in the small cave in which he lives. Rarely does he wear clothing of any kind. This photograph was made while he was playing his first game of golf near Omaha.

Pear fritters are delicious. To make them you will need pears that have been peeled and quartered and slightly stewed. Drain them well, then sprinkle with sugar, dip in a fritter batter and fry well in deep fat. They may be served simply with a sprinkling of powdered sugar or with pudding sauce.

Keep that Confidence!

Ever since the beginning of the world, CONFIDENCE has played a tremendous part in preservation of peace and honor.

Individuals, communities and nations filled with confidence in each other find true contentment and good feeling. Through this confidence, they are of mutual benefit to each other. Just as soon as that confidence is destroyed, that which was productive is gone and all concerned suffer.

Confidence is the basis of business today. Confidence is responsible for the great credit system in the commercial world.

When you buy merchandise or service from a business man of Richmond, you get credit because of his CONFIDENCE in you. He BELIEVES in you. He knows that you have built up a character and reputation that DESERVES his confidence.

RAPIDLY

KEEP THAT CONFIDENCE! Keep it for your own sake, as well as for the sake of others. Pay your bills promptly! If circumstances arise that you cannot take care of your obligations at the promised time, be frank with your creditor. Let him know that you are remembering his faith in you.

It is only through all of us keeping faith with each other that the granting of credit is possible. Let's create and maintain a "good pay" reputation for Richmond. Let us BUILD in this community with CONFIDENCE.

WE, WHOSE NAMES ARE SIGNED BELOW HAVE CONFIDENCE IN THE PEOPLE OF RICHMOND, AND ASK THEM TO JUSTIFY THIS CONFIDENCE BY KEEPING THEIR CREDIT IN GOOD STANDING.

TUBERCULOSIS OVERCOME

Oakland, Calif.

April 28, 1925.

For about three years I suffered from a bad cough and sore chest. I tried many doctors, all of whom pronounced my case Tuberculosis. My appetite was examined and showed tubercular germs. A year has elapsed since I began to take the FONG WAN HERBS on April 16, 1924, but today, I am still well and have no sign of my former complaints.

Women Plan To Clear Church's Debt This Year

Wesley Methodist church will be out of debt by the end of the year. That is the solemn resolve of the Ladies' Aid society. The women's organization has been steadily biting off chunks of the debt, and yesterday at their picnic in Alvarado park they nibbled again. This time $50 was the mouthful.

The women plan a "dollar" tea for August 26, the last Wednesday in the month, at which they hope to make enough money for another bite at the church debt. Although the tax on members will be $1, the outsider will get in for twenty-five cents. Programs will be given by each circle of the society.

Only $450 remains of the debt. After the annual "dollar" tea, and several following money-raising schemes, the women of the church say they will have cleaned up the long-standing obligation.

Kiwanis Club Told Americans Are Rudest People on Earth

America is the rudest nation in the world, Kenneth A. Millican, manager of the Pacific National Bank of San Francisco, told members of the Kiwanis club in Richmond at their weekly gathering yesterday.

During the course of his talk, which dealt mainly with the theory of business, Millican said there are three primary contracts in business—the personal, the telephonic and that by correspondence.

Kenneth Courtwright, son of Chas. M. Courtwright, and member of the California varsity golf club, favored the gathering with several tenor solos. Emil Esola was at the piano. Clare D. Horner related some of his experiences on his recent trip east.

Justice of the Peace John Roth was awarded the attendance prize of a pack of cards and a box of poker chips, awarded by Frank C. Shallenger. Golden I. Downing of the Appraisal and Sales Corporation was received into the club as a new member.

Warnings have been issued by Henry Ford disclaiming any connection with the so-called Bankers Shares and cautioning possible investors to steer clear of all such offerings. Investigations in New York resulted in a number of brokerage firms, specializing in the Bankers Shares, making quick departures for other states.

OTHER WARNINGS
More recently warnings have been issued by the Better Business Bureau throughout the nation calling attention to the low earning power of these shares, which are stated to range from nothing to not more than one and one-half and two percent on the investment.

The Bankers Shares bubble was exploded many months ago by the State Corporation Department as being an especially hazardous investment and the chances for a legitimate return on the money invested exceedingly dubious. In all such offerings the name "Bankers" is played upon to leave the impression with the buyer that the shares are backed by large banking institutions, when as a matter of fact the banks are not interested or back of any of the issues.

SHOULD INVESTIGATE
The State Corporation Department again cautioned investors of California against the purchase of any of these shares. Before an investor parts with his good money he should satisfy himself that there is a chance for a fair return on the investment and also that the stocks are as represented.

Information may be readily obtained concerning any of the so-called Bankers Shares by referring to the circulars to any banker in the State of California, or by immediately communicating with the State Corporation Department.

Bell, upon the insurance companies for payment of the insurance policies written on the life of Schwartz.

WILL FIGHT DEMAND
The insurance companies having announced their intention to refuse payment until the death of Schwartz is substantiated by documentary evidence, this move was expected to bring a flat refusal which would be followed by the filing of a suit to collect. Mrs. Schwartz to charge that the Contra Costa authorities are holding against her will and consent and in refusal to her demands for possession, the body of her husband, HOUSE SURROUNDED.

A corp of deputy sheriffs from Martinez aided by the Oakland police were reported late Wednesday afternoon to have surrounded a house in a secluded district in Oakland where in a man answering Schwartz' description was reported to be hiding.

BODY IN ICE
While a glass case in the San Francisco morgue holds the ice-encased body of the unidentified victim, every agency of justice in the state of California is looking for Leon Henry Schwartzhoff, alias John Doe Stein, alias Charles Henry Schwartz, chemist, gay Lothario, war hero and inventor, as the perpetrator of one of the worst crimes in the history of California.

A warrant for the arrest of Schwartz was issued in Martinez at 4 o'clock Tuesday afternoon by Justices of the Peace Frank L. Glass on the complaint of Clyde Laird, special prohibition officer working out of the District Attorney's office.

That the murder victim was a man seeking employment at the plant as an assistant chemist was the new theory of the police today following the statement of Theodore Benetia, foreman in the Owl Drug Co., plant in San Francisco and living at Saranap, who gave a "lift" to such a man on his way to Walnut Creek on Tuesday preceding the explosion and fire.

WORE SIMILAR CLOTHES
Benetia said after hastily looking at the body that the blue shirt and overalls were of the same make as that worn by the pedestrian, who at the time he was picked up was going toward Schwartz' laboratory to apply for a job. According to Benetia, the man said he was from New York.

Among the New Yorkers' possessions was a blanket roll wrapped in canvas and tied with clothesline

Is Every Day A Backache Day?

Richmond Folks Have Found the Cause and Corrected It.

Is your back lame and aching? Are you tortured with sharp, rheumatic pains, miserable with headaches, dizzy spells and kidney irregularities? No wonder, then, you feel worn-out and discouraged. But have you given any thought to your kidneys? You should! Weak kidneys cause just such troubles. Don't risk neglect! Use Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys.

Here's a Richmond case: Mrs. R. Doolittle, 1415 Nevin Ave., says: "DOAN'S PILLS are the best remedy I have ever used and always helped me. If I took cold it always affected my kidneys. I had backaches that kept me miserable and was feeling tired and dull and had no energy. My kidneys didn't act right. Doan's Pills always rid me of such attacks and put my kidneys in good order."

Mrs. Doolittle is only one of many Richmond people who have gratefully endorsed Doan's Pills. If your back aches—if your kidneys bother you, don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—ask distinctly for DOAN'S PILLS, the same that Mrs. Doolittle had—the remedy backed by home testimony. 60 cents at all dealers. CITY'S WHARF MAKES PROFIT DURING SEASON

Sum Expended For Improvements More Than Consumes Proceeds

Total expenses of the Richmond municipal wharf during 1924-25 were $39,375.63, according to Harbor Master Jackson A. Misner.

This sum was in excess of the revenue of $31,484.72, but in addition to operating expenses it included the expense of improvement and changes made at the wharf.

The operating expenses for the year totaled but $15,680.65, showing that the wharf was operated at a profit.

Reinforcements were made under the dock at an expense of $8,396.59, and the old fender line, eaten away by teredo worms, was replaced at rope. It was recalled that the dead man's body was found on a pile of blankets. Rope of small size was found hanging in the closet at the foot of the stairs leading to Schwartz' laboratory.

The only discrepancy seemed to be in the hair. Benetia said he remembered the New York man had reddish hair and a light growth of beard.

Fire Dangers Eliminated By Safety Devices

Window Display Carries Ideas That Foresters approve as a Means of Reducing the Number of Fires Started by Campers.

Because of the unusual fire danger which many sections of the country are facing this summer the district inspector has called upon the Western Auto Supply company to assist in every possible way to aid in the prevention of forest fires.

Smokers and Campers
The two most prolific sources of forest fires according to the forest ranger are smokers and campers. A great deal may be accomplished toward ending the fire menace if the smokers will use greater care in discarding cigar and cigarette stubs as he travels through the forests. Also substitutes for the open camp fire will aid in keeping down the forest fires.

Safety Devices.

The ash tray that fastens to the dash of the car will be as a receptacle for all smoldering cigar and cigarette ends. The electric cigar lighter will do away with matches, and the gasoline stove will put an end to open fires.

Stoves Advocated.

The forest rangers always look with approval upon the camper who uses a gasoline stove or lantern as there is little danger of fire of any nature originating from such devices. Then too, they are great conveniences for an entire meal can be prepared on the gasoline stove in the time it ordinarily takes to gather dry firewood.

Take One Along.

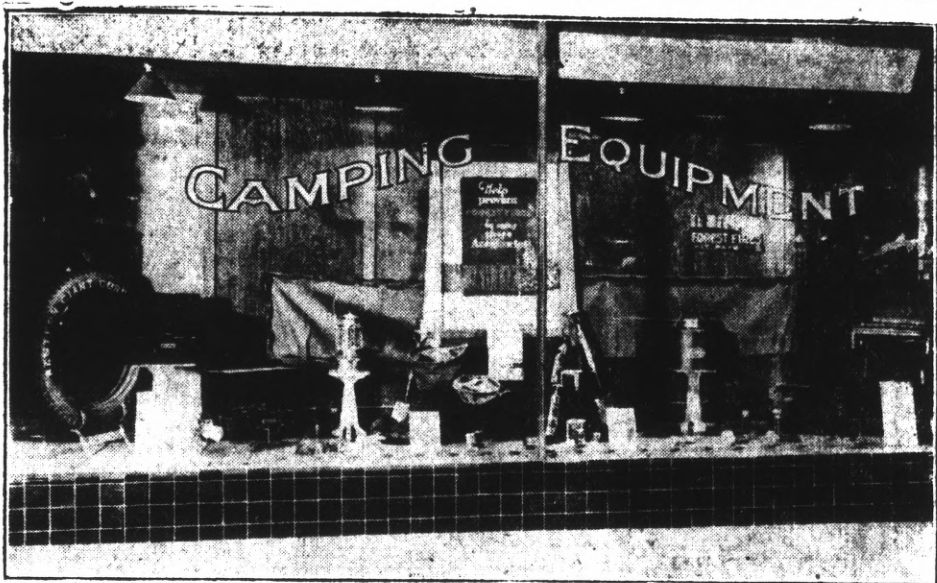

The Pyrene fire extinguisher also comes in for its share of glory when it comes to preventing big fires. This little extinguisher can be carried easily in the car and it will quickly put a small fire.

Other Helps.

A good flashlight is not only an important adjunct to the car's equipment, but it provides a safe means of light where an open fire light would be unsafe.

The Western Auto Supply company hopes to spread the fire prevention gospel to all their customers, by advising them as to the equipment to use in the forests and thereby aid in the conservation of our great natural playgrounds.

Window Display at Western Auto Supply Draws Comment

Cooperating with the District Foresters throughout the country, the Western Auto Supply Company has dedicated its windows this week to the prevention of forest fires. The above picture shows the window at the local branch of the company located at 11th Street and Macdonald Avenue.

After entertaining and being entertained for a couple of hours, the Lions returned, starting at 2 o'clock and making the trip in less than two hours.

Sen. Lenroot Takes Lead In Court Battle

(By Universal Service)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 5.—Leadership in the fight to force the United States into the League of Nations World Court was assumed today by Senator Irvine L. Lenroot of Wisconsin, a strong supporter of President Coolidge.

At least seventy-five senators are ready now to vote for ratification of the Harding-Hughes-Coolidge plan according to Lenroot. He called attention to the fact that both parties endorsed the court in their platforms.

"In the convention which adopted the Republican platform, he said were twenty-two delegates, now members of the Senate five being on the committee which drafted the platform. It is 'unthinkable,' he asserted, that any of these senators would vote against the court resolution in the Senate. Lenroot said:

"As a member of the foreign relations committee I will enter into no compromise with the enemies of the court that will in any way conflict with the contract the party has made with the people. A sufficient number of Republicans will join with the Democrats, who are in accord with the pledge to determine what the reservations will be."

Arctic Explorers Have Trouble With Airlanes on Ships

(By Universal Service)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 4.—The first successful flight by one of the Navy's planes with the MacMillan Arctic Expedition was reported in a radio-gram from Lieutenant Commander Byrd today.

"The naval unit started work early with the first sunlight since arriving here (Etah), the message asserted. 'All mechanics set to work on NA-2, which was erected at 2 p. m. All hands were brought to work on NA-3, which was erected at 9 p. m. and hauled out and tied up to a buoy 100 feet from beach. NA-2 took off for test hop and had breakdown. Made a hop at 9 p. m. and remained in air thirty minutes and at 9:35 p. m. was moored to buoy near NA-3.

"NA-1 was taken ashore Wednesday morning and erected and probably NA-1 and NA-3 will have test flights. Will make flight of nineteen miles today to Eskimo village to have some Eskimo clothes made to get them so far. Eskimo clothes are only ones light enough and at the same time warm enough for work and flying we have to do. 'Biggest task has been to get planes overboard and ashore without wings.'"

CONFIDENCE IS BUILDER OF PROSPEROUS TIMES

True "Community Spirit" Lies In Your Confidence In The Merchant And In His Trusting You

"Trust men and they will be true to you; treat them greatly, and they will show themselves great."

Thus wrote Emerson in his Essays on Prudence. And how true to life those facts are, especially the business side of life. Unless we have CONFIDENCE and TRUST in the merchants with whom we deal and feel that they are doing their best to satisfy us, we're not going to do business with them very long.

Unless the merchant knows that a customer is one to whom he can extend credit—a customer who always promptly pays his bills when they're due—a customer who has a good reputation and is of good character—we can't expect that merchant to be of the "trusting" kind very long.

Key to all Progress CONFIDENCE—Confidence—that's the key to all progress. The key to all big undertakings that have resulted in success. It's something we all should possess. And you, kind readers, can gain a good deal more of it by reading the eighth of a series of educational messages our business and professional interests have been broadcasting through the columns of this paper. You'll find it on page 5 of this issue.

Turn to it now. Read it carefully. And—THINK IT OVER!

Preacher Is Jailed For Taking Bond

First Conviction in Attack On Pseudo Employers Lands Former Lodi Minister—Requiring $100 Bonds of Men Asking For Jobs.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 5.—The first conviction in State Labor Commissioner Walter G. Mathewson's drive against pseudo employers who exact cash bonds from workers was secured yesterday when Police Judge Edward J. Tyrrell of Oakland held H. B. Patterson, former preacher of Lodi and Visalia, guilty of larceny by trick and device. It was proved that he had exacted cash bonds of $100 each from 8 workers, who answered an advertisement inserted in Oakland papers and reading as follows:

"Handy man—Gravel plant; top wages; bonus; permanent; $100 cash bond required."

Some of the men were taken to San Andreas, where Patterson had a cable stretched across a river with a movable scoop on it. Others were left in Oakland. A few days later Patterson disappeared. He was traced to San Jose and latter to Oakland, where he was arrested. He is being held in the city jail at Oakland in default of $500 bail and will appear for sentence on August 6.

The case of C. D. Plum, also accused by the Labor Commissioner of defaulting workers of bond money and wages, comes up for trial on August 11, before Judge Lile T. Jacks in the San Francisco police court. Plum is accused of misappropriating $9,900 in cash put up by workers as bonds and of defrauding them of other money and wages, totaling in all $22,000. He faces charges of grand larceny by trick and device and obtaining money by false pretenses, also possible charges of using of the U. S. mails in a scheme to defraud.

Scores of other cases where workers have lost their life savings through similar fraudulent schemes are being investigated by the Labor Commissioner and other arrests are expected shortly.

THE SPIRIT OF SOUND REGULATION

Rendering a recent decision, the Idaho Public Utilities Commission said:

"A public utility which imposes an unfair burden of rates on its consumers, or otherwise treats them unfairly, may gain a somewhat increased revenue for a time; but inevitably will be forced to meet hampering resentment and hostility which will cause higher costs, a reduced number of customers, a lessened amount of use by restrained customers, and these will certainly result in reducing the value of the utility's investment, even if the loss of much of it is avoided.

"On the other hand, the public can for a time force a level of rates below the point of fairness. By so doing it temporarily reduces the amount paid for service, but there promptly results a rapid reduction of quality and quantity of service.

"No one, whether it be an individual or a public utility, can for very long obtain more than is fairly paid for. More than this there would be a prompt check of service expansion, not only by the utility affected, but by all others where further investment is needed for public service.

"Investors do not go where unfairness is waiting. This would seriously affect and retard the development of the state, as one of the most important elements in state progress is ample and satisfactory utility service and the ready extension of it as it may be needed. In either case the state suffers."

SCIENTIFIC HIGHWAY CONSTRUCTION

There is a growing tendency to pay more attention to scientific highway construction. The initial surveying work to secure the best location for a road must be backed up by sound engineering principles applied to the construction of the hard surface itself.

With states, cities and counties spending hundreds of millions of dollars on permanent paving, the taxpayers are learning that they cannot afford cheap and imperfect construction. They find that it is always at their expense that so called cheap construction by incompetent and inexperienced contractors is carried on.

All over the country, state highways, market roads and city streets that were not built by competent engineers, are breaking up under heavy traffic and in a few years have to be rebuilt.

Permanent highways can only be built with a proper equipment and after the subgrade has been allowed time enough to settle. The contractor should have a good, long record of experience and a reputation at stake. The type of pavement laid should have a time tested service record at a low maintenance cost.

THE CURE FOR SOCIALISM

When the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers went into the banking business about five years ago, it was regarded by many bankers as an experiment in socialism.

The Brotherhood now controls banks in ten cities, with $48,600,000 resources and six investment corporations with $17,000,000 paid in capital.

Instead of rapidly expanding the number of banks, it is the policy of the Brotherhood to build up those already controlled.

Experience has made the members highly conservative. In their combined capacities of workers and bankers, owning in many cases the securities of the corporations whose trains they run, the Brotherhood members have had a good look at both sides of the labor and capital question.

KEEPING FIRE OUT OF FORESTS

Most of the 26 supervisors and 200 forest rangers in the Denver national forest district are equipped with radio sets, and daily get the latest fire advice from the Denver headquarters. Hundreds of cooperative forest stations in the same district also receive the headquarters' advice. Despite the exceptional dryness of this season, extraordinary efficiency of the forest fire service has been maintained, largely through the radio assistance.

In the campaign for fire protection for forests and reforestation, this system should be extended to all parts of the country as rapidly as possible. It means life for the trees.

Velvet Fashions Late Summer Hats Both in Little Shapes and Big.

THERE seems to be some apparently absurd connection between velvet hats and the warm humid days of August. Even fewer velvet hats in midsummer, there seems to be an irresistible yearning on the part of women to wear hats of this material in these hot days. What happens, of course, is that the milliners begin designing hats of heavier fabrics in view of the coming of autumn and impatient women start right in to wear them.

The important thing is that hats made of velvet are pretty sure to play an important part in the fashion of the autumn and summer. And if anything rivals the little felt hat that has been such a favorite with well-dressed women it will be the little hat of velvet, that is as easy worn and as pliant as the soft felt hat. But there will be larger more formal velvet hats.

The French modistes seemingly began by using velvet in combination with something else. First the large straw shapes were faced with velvet or trimmed with velvet bows or

WISE AND OTHERWISE By MARY MARSHALL

YOU SLOVENLY ANIMAL!

A BRITISHER member of Parliament the other day made the statement that "he had deliberately come to the conclusion that man (which embraces woman) is naturally a slovenly animal. He spoils nature wherever he goes.

"This," said he, "is not confined to one class, but it is not so apparent in the wealthy, for they can afford people to clean up after them." But all the same, the habit is there.

The comment was made apropos of the way that so many London housewives in poor circumstances neglected their front and back yards making them the repositories for tin cans, old boxes and rubbish in general.

Well, we may be "slovenly animals," and perhaps if you and I were as hard pressed and as uneducated and in as poor physical condition as some of the poor Londoners in question we wouldn't keep our back and front yards very tidy, either. But surely it is not only those who can hire someone else to do this work who keep not only their houses and back and front yards in trim condition.

In this country nothing so quickly distinguishes a high class neighborhood from a poor-class neighborhood as this matter of tidiness, and nothing is so sure to keep property values from falling in a suburban community as the persistent effort of all the dwellers therein to keep their places looking neat and trim. And this certainly does not usually mean that outside help is hired to do it. In innumerable cases it is the head of the house himself who carries out the rubbish cans and the mistress of the house carries them in again after they have been emptied. To permit any of the rubbish to drop from the cans and defile the tidy appearance of the little garden plot or the line of sod between the street and the sidewalk would not be permitted.

We are a country without fences or garden walls and in some ways it is well that we are. When back yards are all open to each other pride keeps us from letting ours be the one to blemish a neighborhood.

THE LIMITED MAIL By ELMER EVANCE

Copyright, 1925, Warner Bros. "THE LIMITED MAIL" with Monte Blue, is a dramatization of this story by Warner Bros. Pictures, Inc.

SYNOPSIS
Bob, a young tramp, saves the Limited when it was about to crash into a boulder on a trestle, and now is in the mail car on the way to Crater City, helping Jim Fowler, the clerk, to rearrange letters which had been disarranged when the train came to its sudden stop. He finds a letter addressed to himself at the Salt Lake City hotel where he had made his decision to cast loose. It is in "her" writing, but he resists the temptation to open it and it is cast into the "Dead Letter" compartment.

CHAPTER II—Continued
"Just past midnight," said Jim presently, consulting his watch for perhaps the fortieth time within four minutes, an increase of his nervousness betrayed by his bungling aim. "Today is the fifth anniversary of our marriage." His eyes, veiled with the ardent mist of utter worship, gleamed brightly in the compressed light of the lurching mail car as he gazed steadfastly upon his wife's picture. More to air his own inward ecstasies than to enlighten his companion, Jim continued to talk with engaging freedom to Bob as they worked.

"Five years—each one sweeter than the last—" He choked, then recovered a letter from a wrong sack. Bob felt awkwardly out of place and socially weak in the presence of such devotion. Nevertheless, he experienced a vague feeling of emotional kinship for Jim; reminiscent, though wholly dissimilar, chords were struck in him, stirring up haunting memories that echoed with sweet hollowness in his thoughts, like stray notes fluttering down at evening from high steeple bells. "Don't care so much for myself," Jim was saying, "not that I don't like babies well enough—but My Dearest means more to me than any baby possibly could. Still, it will make her happiness complete. She wanted a baby. So I'm glad, for her sake—only I wish it were over—"

Bob had not the least idea of what to say in answer; so he compromised with a sympathetic nod, and was relieved a moment later when the Limited slithered to a stop in the Crater City station. Jim slid the door open for the relieving clerk and guard, who jumped in cheerily, and stopped in alarm when they saw the odd assortment of hoboes. While the incoming clerk was signing his release order and the registered mail turnover, Jim satisfied him with a hasty explanation. Meantime, Bob and his pals dropped to the wet platform, closely followed by the marine, who, glad that his vigil was over, disappeared efficiently into the night.

Bob had forgotten the conductor's declaration that the passengers intended to make up a purse. But not so his differently-moulded pals, who nudged one another with excited, snacking whispers when they saw Smogs approaching. The fat conductor was leading gingerly under the meagre shelter of the open-sided train shed a committee of the passengers made up of a saturnine paint drummer, an itinerant parson, and a tourist—no less—in golf stockings, knickers and cap.

In the uncertain light of one of the shed's overhead oil lamps the Committee paused and beckoned to Bob. Spike and Potts hastened to them, grinning, bowing. Bob, who had watched the advent of the Committee with uninterested contempt, remained where he was—just under the mail car door. He intended to wish good-bye and good luck to Jim before slouching off into oblivion once more. Smogs, drawing away distastefully from the two orthodox hoboes, called to Bob to come forward.

Bob paid no attention; so the Committee, virtuously determined not to be cheated out of the satisfaction of appearing magnanimous, after dubiously hesitating glances amongst themselves made the concession of moving to him. "Young man," said Smogs, "the kind passengers have taken up a collection—in which, ahem, I felt constrained to join—to reward you

WHERE IT STARTED

FIRE BELLS

The churches of medieval times usually had the only bells in a community; these were arranged in chimes of different notes and played or rung in the same order always. In order to give an alarm of fire the bells were rung backward. It is not known when the idea of a separate bell for fire-alarm was introduced.
